“ over the last 20 years, we busted heads a lot but one thing about Troy when he cared about you. You never really knew it. because he had a funny way of showing it for five years when I was in my worst stages of drug addiction. He woke me up every morning to make sure I was at work when I fell asleep in the middle of the day because my mind wasn't in the right spot he never fired me. He continued to make sure I worked every day. We've had some rough times. We had some sad times and we had some of the best times in the world. Unfortunately, a few years back we kind of fell out just over life you know I got clean. He was doing his thing, but even when I fill out with all my family every time I got around my sister I was talking to Troy that didn't matter to him I wish we would've stayed like we was. I appreciate the time you gave me Troy. I'm sorry for all the crap I put you through and I love you to death man I wouldn't wish this on my worst enemy much less somebody I called my brother-in-law for years and years and I got a beautiful niece from. I'm glad you're not in pain no more and if there is truly more after this earth. I hope it you're enjoying every bit of it. I'm sorry for anything I ever put you through Brother and I hope you know anything that I've ever said. I never meant even when you was working the crap out of me.
