“ I only knew Vincent through his digital avatars in City of Heroes, but his warmth and generosity was palpable even through the screen. I looked forward to when he would create a new character because he always designed the best costumes. He was one of the reasons that I kept playing, and he will be greatly missed.

“ I played City of Heroes with this wonderful man. To his family: Take good care of yourselves always. Mr. Vincent was an absolute joy -- the best kind of person. And he still is in my heart.

Only Knew Vincent through his many avatars in City of Hero's Was fun to play with and his knowledge of the game when it came to theory crafting of our powers was unmatched, i'll truly miss Vince and hope he enjoys the next dimension which is heaven for a rest then perhaps more.
