Bill is also survived by many official friends, Wellness Center acquaintances and dear friends and the great friendship of his church, Bay Minette 1st United Methodist and neighbors. Bill loved people and they loved him. He had the best humor and was so wise. Some friends said Bill and Paulette were like a comedy team playing off each other. They had a strong Christian based marriage trusted their Lord and had so much fun pulling jokes and his each and doing things together, except play bridge!

He graduated from Vigor High School with the class of 1957 and attended the University of Southern Mississippi and the University of Alabama.

Bill was a lover of sports and participated as a college baseball and basketball official and 7A Alabama High School football referee for 38 years. He and Paulette have held season tickets to the University of South Alabama basketball and baseball teams for years. They also enjoyed watching their sons and grandsons play ball.

He retired from Ciba Geigy Chemical Plant, as a buyer in 2004.

Bill loved his children and grandchildren and siblings, but most of all, he loved his wife, Paulette and will be so sorely missed by so many. RIP in God's hands, William Carroll Clark and we will see you again.
